Upcoming B'nai Tikvah Empty Nester Programs for 2010

Sunday, Sept. 26 – LBJ and the Jews

Empty Nester favorite Leon Stein, Professor Emeritus of History at Roosevelt University, will talk about recently released Presidential tapes that reveal the role of LBJ in rescuing hundreds of endangered Jews during and after World War II as well as his "personal and often emotional connection to the State of Israel," according to the Associated Press. 7:00 pm dessert, 7:30 pm program, $6 per person.

Sunday, Oct. 24 – Prisoner of Her Past Screening and Discussion

Screening of "Prisoner of Her Past," a new documentary about Chicago Tribune Arts Critic Howard Reich's journey as he tries to understand why his mother is reliving her horrific childhood in Eastern Europe during World War II. Howard and one of the filmmakers will then lead a discussion about the film. 6:30 pm screening, 7:30 pm dessert, 8:00 pm discussion, $6 per person.

Sunday, Nov. 21 – Aaron Freeman and Sharon Rosenzweig on The Comic Torah

Comedian and media personality Aaron Freeman and visual artist Sharon Rosenzweig have reimagined the Torah in a wildly unorthodox, yet deeply faithful way. After three years of collaboration and on-line postings of the weekly parsha, they have now published The Comic Torah as a book. Aaron and Sharon join us to discuss this unique work. Warning: this program contains graphic representations of the Deity, racially diverse Israelites, bloodshed, and idolatrous orgies. And as we have learned to expect from Aaron, anything else is possible. 7:00 pm dessert, 7:30 pm program, $6 per person.
