PARENT'S CONSENT FOR EMERGENCY MEDICAL TREATMENT AND LIABILITY RELEASE

I hereby give permission for my son/daughter _____ to participate in all activities and programs that are undertaken in conjunction with B'nai Tikvah's Youth Department for the period commencing August, 2009 through August, 2010. I hereby release Congregation B'nai Tikvah, its officers, Youth Department staff and its agents from any and all liability arising from my child's participation in youth group activities, including any liability arising from my child being a passenger in busses hired by B'nai Tikvah for transportation for such activities. I hereby authorize the Youth Department staff members or agents of Congregation B'nai Tikvah to act as our agents to consent to any medical or surgical diagnosis and/or treatment or hospital care deemed advisable by a duly licensed physician, in the event such help of an emergency nature becomes necessary. In no event will Congregation B'nai Tikvah, its officers, Youth Department staff or agents be held liable for any first aid or surgical treatment procedures performed pursuant to this consent. In addition, I hereby give permission to Congregation B'nai Tikvah to use and reproduce photographs of my child taken at Youth Department activities in B'nai Tikvah publications.

CONGREGATION B'NAI TIKVAH YOUTH DEPARTMENT CODE OF CONDUCT

The applicant for membership in a Congregation B'nai Tikvah Youth Group (Makor, Kadima, or USY) agrees to be bound by the following Code of Conduct at all times, including during free time, during transportation to and from events and during home hospitality events and programs:

1. SAFETY. The safety of all participants is of primary importance. No one may act in any manner that is dangerous or hazardous to his or her own safety, or to the safety of any other program participant.
2. RESPECT. (a) The rights and feelings of all program participants must be respected at all times. Conduct disrespecting the rights and feelings of other participants will not be tolerated at any time. (b) All property rights are to be respected, including personal belongings, facilities, equipment. (c) Each participant will respectfully cooperate with every staff person, including volunteer staff, and will otherwise adhere to all rules established for the event.
3. ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION. Only those registered for the event or activity are permitted to attend, and attendance by others is by approval of the event director, based upon space availability. Participation in Youth programs and activities is limited to Jewish individuals. Event participants may not leave any program at any time, or travel by other than designated transportation, without prior permission of the event director, along with prior permission of a parent or guardian.
4. RELIGIOUS PARTICIPATION. All participants shall observe the religious policies established by the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism, including those pertaining to Shabbat observance, Kashrut, the wearing of Kippot during services and meals and Tallit/Tefillin for services where appropriate. Clothing appropriate to the event/location must be worn.
5. ILLEGAL CONDUCT. Possession or use of weapons, alcohol, tobacco products, drugs or controlled substances, illegal conduct or gross misconduct will result in immediate removal from the event or activity and will cause a forfeiture of the right to participate in future Youth activities and events.

Violation of any portion of the Code of Conduct will subject the participant to immediate disciplinary measures, including, but not limited to, notifying a parent, being barred from participation, being sent home at parents' expense, liability for monetary damages and suspension from future events and activities.

We have read and understand the above Code of Conduct and agree to its terms.
